WHERE THEY PLAY TO-DAY.

Washington, July 10.—Washington looked over a parade of Brown pitchers in easily winning to-day's game. Taylor, Weilman, Hoch and Leverenz cach took a turn in the bex, and all were hammered quite freely by the Senators. Seven runs in the first two sessions made it only a loaf for Walter Johnson, who went five innings, and his successor, Harry Harper. Three singles in succession off Johnson in the tiltrick, with none out, fatled to bring the visitors a tally. Score.

ERROR BREAKS PITCHER'S REMARKABLE RECORD

First Baseman Fulton to-day robbed "Lefty" Mellinger, pitcher of the local Central Association team, of the glory of equalling "Cy" Young's record of a perfectly pitched game.
Pitching against Burlington, Mellinger allowed no hits and no runs; gave not a single base on balls, hit no batsmen, and wan faced by only twenty-seven betters. The batter spared by Fulton's error was put out when the next man hit into a double play.

Contesting Yachts-Vanitie Finishes Race, but Deflance Did Not

BY DUNCAN CURRY.
Newport, R. I. July 10.—Resolute first and the rest nowhere about describes to-day's yacht race, which was the first of a series of contests arranged by the New York Yacht Club, salied off here to-day.

The race was salled in a very light southerly air, and a long roll of a sea which just seemed to suit the flerreshoff yacht, while it apparently had just the contrary offect on the Vanitle and Defiance, who apparently could not get out of their own way.

For a wonder Defiance came through to-day's race without a mishap, which was appreciated both by her owners and the spectators, and her good luck was probably due to the presence of Mrs. Pynchon on board, but at that she did not finish.

Briefly, to-day's race was sailed over to-merrow. Moran was hit on the foot in the first inning and forced to retire later in the game. Score:
